Camping in desert

One of the most requested parts of Morocco is camping out in the desert. Based around the world renown dunes at Merzouga to the south of Erfoud, we have a special arrangement with an encampment that is quite unique and private. Excellent accommodation, full WC and shower facilities and first-rate service and dining are all part of this experience.

A night in the desert is an extraordinary experience enhanced by there being no light pollution so the night sky is spectacular. Riding a camel up the dunes at dawn offers a remarkable opportunity to watch the sun rise and the changing colours of the dunes. The silence is deafening!

Xaluca Hotel

Located outside Erfoud, this Spanish owned hotel is an excellent base from where to experience the spectacular dunes of Erg Chebbi. The hotel offers spacious en suite bedrooms with air conditioning, an extensive garden area, pool and all the amenities you would expect from a good hotel. The service and dining is first class. In the evenings local musicians entertain you. This hotel is a true "Arabian" experience.

Perhaps the best excursion from here is to be taken by 4x4 to the dunes of Erg Chebbi to watch the sun rise over the massive dunes. As the sun rises the dunes change colour and this is a magical experience. You can also be taken by camel up into the dunes which is a unique way to spend your time there. Nearby is the desert town of Rissani which is well worth visiting to experience the local way of life.
